Learner paper · Traditional Chinese

Independent practice for the 2027 format. 55 multiple-choice questions and 4 free-response tasks. Not an official College Board paper or an AP 1–5 score prediction.

Order: speaking, writing, listening, reading. Writing shares 30 minutes; listening 25 minutes; reading 40 minutes. Speaking: 3-minute preparation + 3-minute presentation; four Q&A prompts, twice each, followed by 40-second responses.

The official 2027 course-project packet is scheduled for January 2027. The speaking scenario in this paper is original practice, not that official packet.

Use the local practice workspace for recording and the MP3 files for listening. No listening transcript or Q&A prompt is printed in the learner paper.

Before the speaking section: research preparation

Before speaking, investigate how a musical tradition in a Chinese-speaking community is learned or passed to new participants. Consult at least two identifiable sources. Connect a specific learning practice with a cultural perspective, and distinguish documented information from your interpretation. The source leads below support independent research; they are not an official course-project packet.

UNESCO: Grand song of the Dong ethnic group

https://ich.unesco.org/en/RL/00202

UNESCO 的侗族大歌條目介紹了沒有樂器伴奏或指揮的多聲部歌唱，也說明歌師向合唱羣體中的學習者傳授歌曲。可繼續研究：演出時不設指揮，與學習時接受指導有什麼不同？共同聆聽、記憶和配合可能怎樣參與傳承？後一個問題是研究方向，不是對所有參與者感受的既定結論。

UNESCO: Xi’an wind and percussion ensemble

https://ich.unesco.org/en/RL/xi-an-wind-and-percussion-ensemble-00212

UNESCO 的西安鼓樂條目介紹了鼓與管樂器結合的音樂形式，提到師徒傳承，也提到保存並使用的手寫曲譜。可繼續研究：曲譜、示範和羣體練習各能幫助新手理解什麼？不要僅憑一種記錄方式，就判斷所有學習者的能力或所有當代團體的教學做法。

Prepare brief source-based notes in your own words. These are practice notes, not an official PPR submission.

Free response 1 · Project presentation

Present your research on how a musical tradition in a Chinese-speaking community is learned or passed on. Explain a specific learning practice and its relationship to a cultural perspective. Use identifiable evidence, include a comparison or reflection, and discuss one limit of what your sources establish. Speak in Chinese.

請介紹你研究的一種華語文化情境中的音樂傳統怎樣被學習或傳承。說明一種具體學習實踐及其與文化觀念的關係，結合可辨認的資料證據，作適當比較或反思，並指出來源所能說明的問題有哪些侷限。請用中文作答。

Manual analytic review: 11 points maximum. No automatic grade.

Free response 2 · Project Q&A

Answer four questions in Chinese about your research into learning and transmitting a musical tradition. Each question is heard twice, followed by a forty-second response window. The whole four-response exchange receives one analytic review.

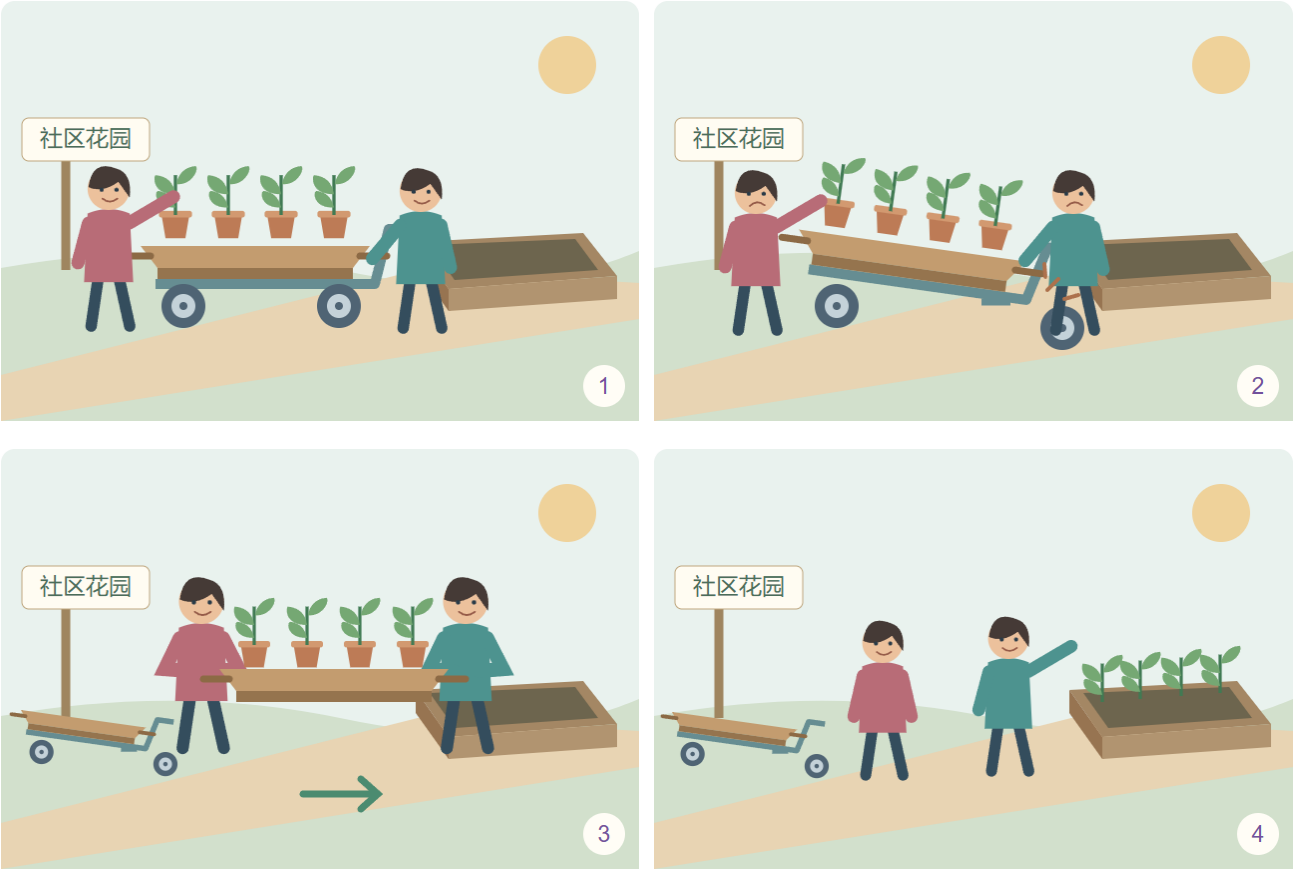

Manual analytic review: 9 points maximum. No automatic grade.

One 9-point profile for the complete four-response exchange; not 36 points.

Free response 3 · Story narration

Write a complete story in Chinese using all four pictures in order. Explain what happens before, during, and after the problem. You may choose names and add plausible details that fit the sequence.

請按順序使用全部四幅圖，用中文寫一個完整故事，交代問題出現前、發生時和解決後的情節。可以自定人物姓名，並補充符合畫面順序的合理細節。

Write your response on additional paper. Both writing tasks share one 30-minute clock. Use additional paper as needed.

Manual analytic review: 8 points maximum. No automatic grade.

Free response 4 · Email response

Reply in Chinese to the coordinator’s email. Address each request and ask a relevant preparation question. Use an appropriate greeting, organization, and closing.

學校交流辦公室｜學生版校園指南

同學你好！下個月有一組短期交流學生來校，我們想請學生編一份簡短的雙語校園指南。你認爲最值得加入哪類信息？請說明理由，以及你願意負責的工作。

有些信息，例如活動時間和聯繫人，可能會變化。你建議怎樣保持資料可靠？紙面篇幅有限，但讀者的中文水平不同，你會怎樣兼顧清楚和簡短？最後，請提出一個你開始準備前需要向辦公室確認的問題。

期待你的建議！

協調員 周老師

Your answer: _____

13. In this conversation, what does “門檻不高” suggest?

A. The entrance to the theater has been physically lowered.

B. The performance space has a limited number of seats.

C. The club’s budget is smaller than last year’s budget.

D. A high level of prior experience is not required.

Your answer: _____

14. What qualification do the speakers add to the idea of free choice?

A. Participants should choose roles solely according to the shortest title.

B. Choosing a role still requires meeting stated commitments.

C. Every participant may change the performance date independently.

D. The English poster should omit scheduling details to stay brief.

Your answer: _____

15. What broader approach to translation do the speakers support?

A. Follow the literal wording even if readers misunderstand the invitation.

B. Use the shortest possible phrase regardless of missing information.

C. Communicate the intended choices and responsibilities in context.

D. Remove the Chinese slogan because figurative language cannot be explained.

Preparing a map for a digital exhibition

Questions 16–20

Use audio clip L4 or the corresponding part of the 25-minute practice track.

16. Why should the map’s recording date appear near its title?

A. To make clear that the map documents a past situation.

B. To guarantee that every street still follows the same layout.

C. To replace the need to provide a title for the exhibition.

D. To indicate the exact time every future visitor will arrive.

Your answer: _____

17. What should be done before reducing the size of a scanned map?

A. Delete the original so the computer uses less storage.

B. Publish the largest version and resize it only after complaints.

C. Create an upload copy while retaining the original file.

D. Remove all small writing regardless of its meaning.

Your answer: _____

18. What would best satisfy the instruction about the red and green routes?

A. Make both routes thinner and leave the legend blank.

B. Use different line patterns or labels as well as color.

C. Choose darker colors without adding any other distinction.

D. Explain only that one color is more attractive than the other.

Your answer: _____

19. What is the correct response if the legend was cut off during scanning?

A. Assume visitors can infer the symbols from the title alone.

B. Hide all route lines to avoid explaining their meaning.

C. Add an unrelated sample legend copied from another map.

D. Scan the complete page again so the original legend is included.

Your answer: _____

20. What is the purpose of the draft stage after submission?

A. It lets the author check the presentation before making it public.

B. It proves the map will automatically update as streets change.

C. It allows the original file to be discarded without consequence.

D. It prevents the author from correcting links once they are entered.

Revising a language-partner program

Questions 26–30

p1 • 郵件一｜協調員致學生志願者

各位同學：下個月的語言夥伴計劃原定每週二晚上見面一小時，整個學期固定搭檔。報名者中有人想練習日常交談，也有人主要想了解課堂討論的表達方式。我們準備讓每次活動都按同一份話題表進行，方便統一管理。請大家週五前提出意見，並說明自己能負責的工作。

p2 • 郵件二｜志願者顧嵐回覆

老師您好！固定時間和搭檔有助於熟悉彼此，不過有幾位報名者週二要實習，照這個安排，他們還沒開始就會被排除。我建議保留週二活動，同時增加一個可預約的週末小組。搭檔可以先固定兩次，再根據雙方目標協商是否調整，而不是每次都隨機換人。

p3 • 話題表可以作爲備用，不必要求每個人按順序談完。日常交談組可用具體生活情境，課堂討論組則可以練習提問和說明理由。我可以整理兩類活動卡，並在首次見面時幫助大家寫下自己的目標。是否能先試行四周，再收集參與者對安排的反饋？另外，我想確認，週末活動室是否已經有人負責開門。這個問題解決後，我就能聯繫小組成員。

26. What is Gu Lan’s main purpose in replying?

A. To suggest a more flexible plan while offering specific help.

B. To ask that all organized meetings be replaced by unscheduled encounters.

C. To reject both fixed partners and any record of participants’ goals.

D. To confirm that every applicant has already agreed to Tuesday evenings.

Your answer: _____

27. What does Gu propose for matching partners?

A. Assign a different partner randomly at every meeting.

B. Keep the original partner for the entire term regardless of goals.

C. Let only the coordinator decide changes without consulting participants.

D. Keep partners initially, then discuss changes based on their aims.

Your answer: _____

28. Why does Gu suggest a weekend group?

A. The Tuesday room is permanently unavailable.

B. The topic cards cannot be used in evening sessions.

C. Some interested applicants have commitments on Tuesdays.

D. The participants have requested that every meeting become longer.

Your answer: _____

29. How would the topic list function under Gu's proposal?

A. As a required sequence that every pair must complete.

B. As optional support adapted to different learning goals.

C. As a test that ranks participants before assigning partners.

D. As a replacement for discussing what participants hope to practice.

Your answer: _____

30. What needs to be confirmed before Gu contacts the weekend group?

A. Whether every Tuesday applicant can move to weekends.

B. Whether a new term-long fixed pairing list has been approved.

C. Whether someone is responsible for opening the activity room.

D. Whether all daily-life cards have been translated into every language.

More than a smaller portion

Questions 31–35

p1 • 晴川中學食堂過去只有一種飯菜分量。幾位學生反映，有時喫不完，卻不好意思提出少盛一點。食堂於是試行普通份和小份兩種選擇，價格相同，小份喫完仍可以免費添飯。工作人員希望先讓學生選擇，再瞭解剩餐變化，而不是統一把每份都縮小。

p2 • 表中記錄了試行前一週和試行兩週的每日平均數據。“剩餐”只計算用餐後盤中未喫完的食物，不包括廚房備餐時產生的部分。第二週參加校內活動的人增加，供餐數比前一週多；各周菜單也不完全相同。

p3 • 試行第二週的剩餐總量比第一週上升，有人因此說方案失敗了。學生觀察組認爲，不能忽略供餐人數的變化；與試行前相比，第二週供餐更多，剩餐仍更少。不過，這些數據還不能證明每一種菜都會同樣減少浪費。小組建議繼續記錄，並分別詢問選擇小份和普通份的學生，看看添飯是否方便、分量是否合適。

p4 • 一位食堂工作人員說，如果只是把剩餐數字降下來，卻讓學生不敢添飯，就偏離了目的。下一輪會把添飯窗口標識做得更清楚，並保留兩種分量，讓“喫多少盛多少”成爲可以實際選擇的做法。

晴川中學食堂三週記錄

時段	每日平均供餐數	每日平均剩餐
試行前一週	400份	18千克
試行第一週	400份	12千克
試行第二週	480份	15千克

本表爲原創模擬數據。各周均按實際開放日計算平均值；並非對所有學校的調查。

31. What distinguishes the trial from simply reducing every meal's size?

A. Everyone must choose a small portion and pay to add more.

B. Students can choose a portion and add food without an extra charge.

C. The school has removed all standard portions from the menu.

D. Kitchen preparation waste is counted as a student's unfinished meal.

Your answer: _____

32. What does the reported "leftover food" measure include?

A. All waste produced by the school throughout the day.

B. Only unused ingredients left in the kitchen after preparation.

C. The weight of meals students bought but had not yet collected.

D. Food remaining on diners' plates after they have eaten.

Your answer: _____

33. Which comparison is directly supported by the table?

A. The second trial week served fewer meals than before the trial.

B. The first trial week produced the same leftovers as the baseline week.

C. The second trial week served more meals but left less food than the baseline week.

D. The two trial weeks had identical meal counts and leftover totals.

Your answer: _____

34. Why can these three weeks not establish the same effect for every dish?

A. The menus and attendance conditions were not identical across weeks.

B. The observers refused to count the number of meals served.

C. The table combines measurements taken at different schools.

D. The trial did not offer students any real choice of portion.

Your answer: _____

35. What would best match the staff member’s understanding of success?

A. Discourage additional servings so that the waste total is always low.

B. Close the standard-portion line to make everyone’s plate identical.

C. Reward only the week with the lowest total regardless of attendance.

D. Make portion choices and additional servings clear and usable.

When one missing word changes a caption

Questions 36–40

p1 • 校刊科技組第一次試用課堂自動字幕時，給出的結論很簡單：一百個字只錯一個，已經足夠可靠。後來他們發現，字幕把老師說的“不要馬上交卷”漏掉了一個“不”字，剩下的字雖然都對，學生理解的行動卻完全相反。

p2 • 小組於是改變了檢查方式。除了記錄錯字數，他們還把人名、數字、否定詞和轉折關係單獨標出來，看看錯誤是否改變主要信息。同樣錯一個字，姓名中的錯字可能使人認錯對象，普通語氣詞的差異卻未必影響任務。一個總分不能說明所有錯誤的重要程度。 p3 • 有同學建議直接把字幕全部改得通順，再公開最終版本。編輯認爲，這樣讀起來方便，但會讓後來的使用者看不見哪裏曾經不確定。最後，展示頁面保留原始字幕，並用另一欄列出覈對後的版本，註明修改依據。遇到沒有聽清的地方，不爲了版面完整而補寫一個看似合理的詞，而是回聽錄音、請說話者確認，或者保留“待覈實”的標記。

p4 • 這次試用只涉及兩堂課，課堂討論的聲音條件和正式講臺講話也不同。小組不再用“準確率很高，所以處處都能放心用”作結，而把使用場景、檢查方法和仍未解決的問題寫進報告。他們認爲，技術工具有價值，但負責任的使用也包括知道什麼時候需要停下來覈對。

36. How does the group’s evaluation of automatic captions change?

A. It shifts from checking meaning to judging only the elegance of sentences.

B. It stops considering any error once the overall accuracy seems high.

C. It treats every wrong character as equally important in every situation.

D. It begins examining how particular errors affect the intended information.

Your answer: _____

37. What does the missing “不” in the opening example demonstrate?

A. A subtitle can be useful only if every speaker uses exactly one sentence.

B. A single omission can reverse the action a listener is asked to take.

C. Negation words have no effect on the practical meaning of instructions.

D. Counting correct characters always identifies the most serious misunderstanding.

Your answer: _____

38. Why does the final page keep an original caption column alongside corrections?

A. So readers can trace uncertainty and the basis of revisions.

B. So the group can avoid explaining why any change was made.

C. So every original error will be treated as the speaker’s intended meaning.

D. So a fluent final sentence can replace evidence from the recording.

Your answer: _____

39. If a word cannot be heard clearly, which action follows the group’s approach?

A. Insert the most fluent guess and remove all signs of doubt.

B. Copy a likely word from an unrelated class’s transcript.

C. Seek confirmation or leave the uncertainty explicitly marked.

D. Assume the word is unimportant because only one character is missing.

Your answer: _____

40. Which statement would be most appropriate in the group’s final report?

A. The two-class trial proves the same performance in every speaking environment.

B. A polished final transcript makes the original conditions irrelevant.

C. High overall accuracy eliminates the need to identify remaining problems.

D. The observed performance should be interpreted with its setting and checks described.

A guide’s blank page

Questions 41–45

p1 • 第一次在學生畫展做講解，我把每幅畫的介紹背得很熟，連停頓都寫在紙上。我最怕有人突然提問，因爲一旦離開準備好的句子，就不知道該說什麼。開場前，老師只對我說：“別急着把所有空白填滿。”我以爲她嫌我寫得太多。 p2 • 講到一幅畫着半開門的作品時，一個孩子問：“門後面的人爲什麼不出來？”我的紙上只有作者、尺寸和創作年份，沒有這個問題的答案。我差點隨口編一個故事，看到孩子認真等着，又停住了。我說：“我沒有問過畫這幅畫的人，不能替他回答。你覺得門後面會是什麼？” p3 • 孩子說，也許有人正在等朋友。旁邊一位阿姨卻想到，門半開着，可能是一個人想出去又猶豫。大家開始指着畫裏的光線討論，原來安靜跟着走的觀衆也湊近了一些。我把講解紙翻到背面，在空白處記下他們的話，忽然不再急着接回原來的段落。 p4 • 結束後，我仍然把作品資料查得很仔細，卻在每段介紹旁留出一塊空白。那不是忘記準備，而是提醒自己：有些事實需要準確說明，有些問題可以一起想。下一次講解前，我的紙比以前空了，心裏反而沒有那麼慌。

41. What makes the narrator anxious at the beginning?

A. The exhibition has no labels identifying any of the artists.

B. The teacher has forbidden the use of notes during the tour.

C. An unexpected question might take the narrator beyond the rehearsed script.

D. Visitors have been told that every guide must invent a story for each painting.

Your answer: _____

42. Why is the narrator’s reply to the child a turning point?

A. It acknowledges a limit of knowledge and opens a shared discussion.

B. It establishes that the child’s interpretation is the painter’s confirmed intention.

C. It shows that dates and dimensions can answer every question about art.

D. It prevents the other visitors from expressing a different view.

Your answer: _____

43. What does writing on the back of the paper reveal about the narrator?

A. The narrator has decided that the original factual research was worthless.

B. The narrator wants to replace all visitor comments with a single official answer.

C. The narrator is trying to hide the painting from further questions.

D. The narrator is beginning to treat visitors' contributions as part of the experience.

Your answer: _____

44. How does the final paragraph reinterpret the blank spaces in the notes?

A. As proof that preparation is unnecessary for any guide.

B. As deliberate room for inquiry alongside accurate information.

C. As a method for making visitors finish the guide's homework.

D. As evidence that factual descriptions should be replaced by guesses.

Your answer: _____

45. What relationship between a guide and an audience does the story favor?

A. The audience should remain silent whenever a guide has prepared enough material.

B. The guide should agree that all interpretations are established historical facts.

C. Accurate guidance can coexist with listening and open-ended participation.

D. A guide should answer every question immediately even without evidence.

A walking route with room for everyone

Questions 46–50

p1 • 城市慢行工作室｜街角發現計劃
週日上午九點至十一點，從青石廣場出發。我們不比誰走得快，而是一起觀察日常經過卻沒有留意的地方。路線約兩公里，中途有兩處可休息的地點；如果不想走完全程，可在第一處休息點結束。名額十五人，活動免費，但請提前登記，以便準備材料。

p2 • 帶一支筆和願意觀察的心即可，不需要專業相機。工作室會提供簡圖；願意的話，也可以畫畫、寫關鍵詞或錄一段自己的口頭筆記。我們不要求把每個站點都拍下來，更不以照片數量評選“最佳參與者”。

p3 • 報名時可以說明是否需要大字號路線圖。路線信息會提前兩天發給大家，其中註明坡道、臺階和休息點。請根據自己的需要判斷是否適合；如果某一段不方便通過，聯繫組織者商量替代路段，不必爲了跟上隊伍勉強完成。

p4 • 若預報有較強降雨，工作室會在前一天晚上六點前通知是否改期；沒有收到變更通知時，按原計劃集合。活動後，參與者可自願提交一段不超過一百字的觀察，用於小冊子。未經本人確認，我們不會把你的筆記和姓名一起公開。

46. What would most closely match the purpose of this walk?

A. Finish all stops before anyone else in the group.

B. Collect more photographs than the other participants.

C. Notice details in familiar surroundings without competing over speed.

D. Use a professional camera to document every point on the route.

Your answer: _____

47. A participant expects difficulty with a section containing steps. What does the notice suggest?

A. Discuss an alternative segment with the organizers.

B. Complete the entire route anyway to avoid delaying the group.

C. Wait until after the event to request any route information.

D. Withdraw automatically without considering other options.

Your answer: _____

48. Why is advance registration requested for a free event?

A. To charge a camera rental fee before departure.

B. To rank applicants according to how fast they can walk.

C. To guarantee that every person will complete the full route.

D. To let the organizers prepare the needed materials.

Your answer: _____

49. What should participants do if they receive no rescheduling notice?

A. Assume any mention of rain automatically cancels the event.

B. Meet according to the original plan.

C. Choose a new date independently and inform the group afterward.

D. Send in their observation notes instead of attending.

Your answer: _____

50. Which publication practice is promised for the booklet?

A. All registration details will automatically be printed with each note.

B. Only people who use full names may participate in the walk.

C. Publishing a note together with its author’s name requires confirmation.

D. Every participant must contribute exactly one hundred words.

A handover that leaves room to learn

Questions 51–55

p1 • 留言一｜社區工具室管理員趙叔

小宋，下週我外出三天，工具室想請你和兩位新志願者代管。開門時間照舊。借用記錄裏要寫工具名稱、借出時間和預計歸還日；歸還時先覈對數量，再放回對應格子。遇到自己不能確認的問題，請記下來聯繫我，不要憑印象答應。桌上有一本舊記錄冊，你們可以參考。

p2 • 留言二｜小宋回覆

趙叔，安排收到了。我們看了舊冊，發現有些工具寫的是簡稱，新同學分不清“長夾”和“短夾”各放哪裏。我想在格子旁加一張名稱與照片對照表，再把借用登記的三項要求印在桌面卡片上，這樣不用每次都來問您。

p3 • 不過，舊冊上有一件工具已超過原定歸還日，旁邊只有“等回信”三個字。我們不知道是否已經協商延期，所以先不自行認定借用者違約。我會聯繫您覈實之前的溝通。明天開門前，我們三人想一起走一遍借出和歸還流程，請問您是否方便留十分鐘帶我們練習？如果來不及，我們可以先演練，把不確定的地方集中發給您。

51. Which responsibility remains unchanged while Zhao is away?

A. Volunteers may open the room whenever someone requests it.

B. The room continues to follow its usual opening hours.

C. All borrowed tools must be returned on the day they are borrowed.

D. Only the senior volunteer is allowed to record a loan.

Your answer: _____

52. What practical problem would Song’s proposed photo chart address?

A. The tool room has no available storage spaces.

B. The current borrowing rules require too many return dates.

C. Experienced volunteers are prohibited from naming tools.

D. Abbreviated names are unclear to volunteers unfamiliar with the tools.

Your answer: _____

53. Why does Song avoid immediately declaring the overdue borrower at fault?

A. The note may reflect an extension or communication not yet understood.

B. The tool’s name does not appear anywhere in the old records.

C. Volunteers have been told to disregard all expected return dates.
